Not a dream, but already ordered for postwar use by the Pan American World Airways, these giant Consolidated Vultee transport airplanes will streak from New York to London in 9 hours.

The Plane of Tomorrow

will carry tons instead of pounds, take hours instead of days. Whenever speed is a consideration, cargo will go by air.

Pioneers in all forms of transportation insurance since the days of "Clipper Ships", McGee has the proper solution to your air cargo coverage problem. Let us assist you through your agent or broker.
